

	Traditional Pathway	Intern Pathway	Residency Pathway	TeachStart (sub to teacher)
Description	Attend an accredited college or university and pursue a teaching credential AND master's degree in education through that school. With this route, you will be a Student Teacher, which requires participants to take courses and gain hands-on experience while student teaching under direct supervision.	Attend an accredited college or university that has an Intern Pathway to earn your credential as you teach. Participants receive instruction while managing their own classroom and continuing to take courses and receive supervision.	Through Marshall Teacher Residency, teachers-to-be integrate master's-level education content with a yearlong classroom internship in a public school. Unlike other alternative teaching certification models, residents do not serve as the teacher of record in the classroom.	A program designed to provide prospective teachers with a low-cost tuition pathway to become a certified teacher. Scholar Plus Program is ideal for someone looking to become a credentialed teacher, but worried about the costs and education associated in making it a career.
Time Commitment	2 years	1 year with optional 2nd year if you want to pursue your master's as well	1 year, with 4 year teaching commitment after obtaining your credential	2 years
Estimated Cost to candidate	Cost dependent on university attended	Cost dependent on university attended	With Marshall Teacher Residency, no cost to residents. Eligible for $20,000 teach grant.	Estimated $5,000 to earn credential
Paid during program?	No, full time student	Paid full time teacher salary at Green Dot with benefits, see salary schedule	No, but you will receive a living stipend of $40,000 for the year, paid	Paid hourly sub rate by Scoot Education

		here	monthly
Requirements	Bachelor's Degree CA Basic Skills CA Subject Matter Competency	Bachelor's Degree CA Basic Skills CA Subject Matter Competency (in order to enter the program)	Bachelor's Degree CA Basic Skills CA Subject Matter Competency	Bachelor's Degree CA Basic Skills CA Subject Matter Competency (in year 2)